4. The locker(s) you selected will open. Once the selected locker(s) open(s):
  - a) The requested item(s) has/have been borrowed by you;
  - b) The due date for the item(s) will be shown on the screen;
  - c) Close the locker(s) after picking up your item(s);
  - d) Click "Done".
